My dear Garrison,

The following are my recent movements.

Left Syracuse, Saturday
2. P. M.

Remained at Albany till
Sunday 7. P. M.

Reached New York, Monday
5. A. M.

Got to Phil<sup>a</sup> 11. A. M.

Went out to Chester & Lectured.

Came here yesterday.

Speak here this evening.
I shall probably remain till Friday. Then go into Philadelphia, & lecture.
Back Saturday & Sunday
with Mr McKim.
On Monday be in New York.

You see, I am arranging so
as to secure all the quiet
I can, that I may preserve, and if possible increase my strength.

I should like a line
from you to say where

I should go to in New York.
I had arranged to go to
Mr. Marierres, in 24th
Street. Can say Mr. Shippers.
You must decide for me.
I don't know where Mr Shippers resides. Where shall you be in N. York?

The weather here is lovely -
Trees in full blossom - Sun shining brightly - all green, & full of life. I am just going out to have a drive with my horse

Best love to all at home.
I long to see you.

With affectionate love,

Yours ever,

Geo Thompson
